

SCHOOL OF NURSING
University of Wisconsin-Madison

Continuing Education

Instructor:

Barbara Lawrence, MS, BSN

Senior Outreach Specialist
Wisconsin Alzheimer's Institute
University of Wisconsin
School of Medicine and Public Health

Strategies for Caring for the Person with Alzheimer's Disease

This online course is designed to enhance understanding of nursing interventions for persons with Alzheimer's disease.

What You Will Learn:

- The effects of dementia on thinking
- The importance of early diagnosis for both patient and caregiver
- What is meant by person-centered care
- Common symptoms of Alzheimer's Disease and ways to treat symptoms
- Specific interventions to support communication, the environment, the activity, the person's history, and their physical health
- Strategies to promote successful mealtime, toileting, communication, bathing and grooming, and sleep as well as ways to help calm a person

Continuing Education Credit:

To receive continuing education credit the learner must achieve a minimum score of 70% after completing a quiz. This course earns 1.75 contact hours (0.175 CEUs).

Cost: Individual fee is $50.00

Register via our learning portal:

<http://mynursingce.son.wisc.edu>

For more information visit us at:

<http://www.son.wisc.edu/ce>

The University of Wisconsin-Madison Continuing Education in Nursing is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation